Mahal ko,

First, let me wish us happy 2nd monthary of our friendship or love??
Both I guess. Sorry for being late to write You. You know, I wanted to make something for you but well...I failed :C It's better being late than never, right??
Still, I am seeking apology mahal ko!)

Someone once told me, we find the right person often we least expect it. You came into my life unexpectedly, surprisingly as a blessing from the kind Lord. It's kinda strange and funny how we two met haha. We met in a weird site through message where thousands of people pass by each other every day without ever truly knowing one another. Yet, somehow, among all those people, I found my soulmate, my bestie, my twin and most importantly the love of my life.

I don't know how fate works.
Maybe it was my luck, maybe it was the timing or maybe it was simply two lonely souls crossing paths at the exact moment they needed each other...
Whatever it was, I am grateful for everything.

When people hear about Ldr, they might think it's weak because there is no holding hand, no hugging, no walking together, no dates at a cafe. But hey.... before meeting, we got to examine each other's heart hehe. In this short time, it's crazy to think how Shazee fell in love with you so easily. What spell you did to me huh! I fell in love with the way you think, the way you care, the way you talk, the way you laugh through cell and the way you make my ordinary day feel so special. Salamet mahel ho.

I know, you've been through things that left scars on your heart. There are many memories that you might wish had never happened. When I heard your chikas, I saw the strong ally who kept moving forward despite sufferings. The ally who remained kind even after being hurt. The ally who still found the courage to trust again. Thanks for trusting me and choosing me. For that, you have my love, affection, support, loyalty and respect.

You were right in your last letter where you said "Nothing in this world is permanent". But hey, we can make it possible na. They say, faith can move mountain. Have faith and believe on it. Kaya natin itoo!!!

We still have a long way to go bebe. I also see a future of us full of possibilities where we'll be together forever happily through thick and thin.

You are my tahanan, my place of comfort, my safest home. I don't regret breaking the rule of being single forever haha. I love You so much ♡ Be with me always. Always hold me tightly. Hope you never get tired of me. Never give up honey.

~~wish~~ I can't wait to meet you in person, give you flowers, walk by the seashore holding hands, watch the moon and stars in the sky. pray at:

11:11 together, go on ice-cream dates and to annoy you haha. I wanna see the cutie willy when she's tamper. I wanna make suyo in person hehe. Can't wait for all these experiences with my favourite person.

The letter is getting longer. I just can't stop when I sit to write. Gosh Lastly, know that, I'll always be here for You. I won't ever leave You. Far in distance but not far from heart. Sa'yo lang ako. ♡

Forever Yours -

Shazeee —

PS: This letter hits different. Coz last time, we were unsure what we were. I had to be careful while writing hahaha
